PAUL EVANS
prototype Cityscape Cabinet

Paul Evans Studio | USA, 1970s | chrome plated steel, wood
62 $\frac{3}{4}$ h × 105 w × 24 $\frac{3}{4}$ d in (159 × 267 × 63 cm)

This monumental cabinet is the original form from which Evans developed his "Cityscape" line of furniture. According to his shop foreman, Dorsey Reading, who worked for Evans from 1959 to 1982, fewer than ten were made. This example is the only chrome plated version; nine others were made in brass. Signed to base.
